Brattleboro has brought suit against Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads of the United States railroad (Mutual.) S. S. Ballard, general agent, administration, and the Central Vermont railway to recover $200. It is alleged that on June 1, 1919, it became necessary for the village to lay two lengths of fire hose across the railroad tracks at the Depot street crossing to extinguish a fire on the easterly side of the tracks, and that while they were so laid the Central Vermont Railroad company drove a locomotive over the hose, cutting it in two and rendering it of no

There has been placed on the town hall building in Ludlow, at the right of the postoffice entrance, a bronze tablet containing 111 names and bearing the following inscription: "1914-1918. Dedicated by the Junior Red Cross to the Ludlow boys who served in the World War." There are five gold stars, for Frederick Ballard and Sergt. Harry Hobart, killed in action; Captain Edward F. Phelan, M. D., died of disease in France; James Snow and John Townsend, who died of disease in this capacity. There has been placed on the town hall now and John Townsend, who died of unbearable, I was forced to move carefully or I would bring on a paroxysm. Treatment failed to help me, although I was examined by physicians in a large Boston hospital. "Var-Ne-Sis was recommended, and the reports of what this medicine had done for others gave me confidence that it would help me. I can't say that a few bottles of Var-Ne-Sis cured me, but by persisting in the treatment I was able to return to work, and I haven't a sign or symptom of the disease from that time to this. My stomach improved shortly after taking Var-Ne-Sis, and I regained my normal weight of 180 pounds, after losing 50 pounds. Every day a sufferer of rheumatism puts off taking Var-Ne-Sis is just one day more of needless suffering. Get Var-Ne-Sis at any reliable drug store in liquid or tablet form.—Adv
